NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention will meet in Chicago, Ill., on Tuesday, June 3d, 1884, at 12 o'clock noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for president and vice president at the next election. The republican electors of the several states, and all other voters, without regard to past political difference, who are in favor of the elevating and dignifying of American labor, extending and protecting home industry, giving free popular education of the masses of the people, securing free suffrage and an honest counting of ballots, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly, lasting and permanent harmony throughout the land by securing a national government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to send for each state four delegates at large, and from each congressional district two delegates.

D. M. SABIN, Chairman.
JOHN A. MARTIN, Secretary.

The latest news from the Gramercy cemetery is that Mr. Tilden is still there.

The true definition of the word dude: "A fifty-cent man in a $50 suit of clothes."

The democratic party is probably aware that the republican party will not be caught napping during the campaign.

Wall street has learned from sad experience that it doesn't pay to juggle with values. They are liable to explode.

The eastern business men can learn a good lesson from the western business men. The business brain and the financial solidity have been transplanted from the east to the west.

It will be fourteen months before the printing of all the census reports of 1880 is finished. Six volumes have already been published, and eighteen more are yet to be issued.

In the hall in which the national republican convention will be held, 600 seats, with tables, will be provided for the newspaper men. About a thousand seats will be placed at the disposal of the Chicago committee of arrangements, and the remainder of the seats will be assigned pro rata to the delegates from the several states.

After considerable delay, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway has made up its mind to erect a new depot in Milwaukee. It is to be a four-story-and-attic structure, of the general style and arrangement of the company's Chicago depot, with iron train-sheds. The new depot will front on Reed street, south of the present location, and be about 800 feet in length.

It will be observed that the democrats smile now and then over the thought that no matter who is nominated, Blaine or Arthur, the defeated faction will kick. Herein is where the democrats are deceived. The republicans will not do any kicking this campaign unless it is to kick the democrats out of the race. The candidate who is nominated will receive the cordial support of all factions.

The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has refused to license women to preach. The discussion of the question in the conference was an animating one, some strongly favoring the policy of allowing women to preach and exhort. One delegate said he come from a state (Massachusetts) in which there are 69,000 more women than men, and that they must have something to do. The women would have carried a point or two had they sent some of their best speakers to manage their case.

A special telegram, which, however, must be taken with considerable degree of allowance, comes from Washington to the Inter Ocean, saying that the Blaine men "have about given up all hope of nominating their candidate. The boom is ended, and the great mass of delegates which they have claimed has melted rapidly away under what Mr. Tilden would call the keen sunlight of publicity. Blaine is now looking around for a candidate he can boss, but the question is, can he transfer the delegates who are to vote for him to anybody else? The probability is that as soon as the Blaine column breaks the delegates will scatter." Another curiosity of the campaign is that the Blaine men profess to have all the confidence, hope, and promise of success. It is very safe to say that no one knows what the convention will bring forth in the shape of a candidate for the presidency.

Dr. Pratt, one of the prominent delegates to the convention of superintendents of insane asylums, at Philadelphia says that while the foreign-born element comprises only one-eighth of the population of the country it furnishes one-third of its paupers, one-third of its criminals and one-third of its insane. These are some startling facts, and accounts for the large increase of insane in the United States. It is about time that the government should adopt some means of protecting itself against an irruption of foreign dead-wood. The late attempts to land paupers at Boston and Castle Garden show conclusively that the tendency to donate to us the population that Europe doesn't know what else to do with is on the increase. If this condition of things is allowed to exist much longer the country will be turned into an asylum for the weak-minded paupers of Europe. But how to prevent such wholesale immigration is a question that even baffles Dr. Pratt.

It is not difficult to reach a just conclusion regarding the causes of the recent flurry on Wall street, which resulted in the wreck of fortunes and the crash of banks. For some time there has been a wild and wanton speculation in products and in stocks. Railways have been building more than was profitable. The managers of railways have been at war with each other, and while contending, or rather fighting, for their private interests, have made railway business so unprofitable that the holders of securities have been selling at a sacrifice, while others refused to invest. This condition of things has caused stocks to decline much below their real value. Then, again, there has been too much recklessness and dishonesty. Speculation has gone rampant and dishonesty has been the ruling spirit on Wall street.

There is another thing that has figured in the case, and that is the discussion of the tariff. Whenever the democrats in congress begin to meddle with the tariff question the industries of the country are at once affected. There is nothing that will so paralyze the manufacturing interests of the country more than the continual agitation of the tariff. It unsettles prices, makes the future uncertain, keeps capital locked up, and creates general distrust. The silver bill has expanded circulation beyond all reason, and has made good money scarce by driving it abroad, and putting on the market a flood of fictitious money. Whenever the democrats in congress shall stop the useless tariff agitation, when Wall street men shall learn to be fairly honest, when reckless speculation shall cease, and when those who have the power to shake commerce and disturb trade, shall be less greedy and dishonest and more conservative and honorable in their methods and ambition, failures would be less frequent and panics of rare occurrence.

LACKS ROBUSTITUDE.

Wall Street, Though Better, Not as Vigorous as Desirable.

Some More of Ferdinand Ward's Unique Testimony—Discussing Cause and Effect in Congress—Bursted Banks.

THE DAY ON THE "STREET."

Weakness Continues to Characterize Transactions—Ferd Ward.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The week opened in financial circles with a much better feeling. The excitement and rush of the closing days of last week had entirely disappeared, and matters were going much as they were before the panic. Brokers were less timid about negotiating business transactions, and confidence appeared to be gradually gaining ground. Almost from the first sale, however, prices began to decline, and on each succeeding sale values went gradually lower. There were but few supporting orders, and some of the bear operators who have not yet fully covered took advantage of the situation to hammer the test. The announcement was received from London that a heavy selling of American securities was in progress, and that a number of foreign holders had cabled their brokers here to sell. Under these influences prices were kept almost steadily on the down grade throughout the morning, and at noon the figures showed a drop of ¼ to 3¾ per cent. From noon until shortly after after 1 o'clock, the market was comparatively firm and prices rallied fractionally, but at 2 o'clock prices were again at the lowest of the day. About the only ripple of excitement that characterized the day's dealings was caused shortly after the second board. Just before the time for delivery the chairman rapped for attention and when quiet was secured the announcement was made that the firm of W. B. Scott & Co., brokers of 34 Pine street, had notified the exchange of their inability to meet their engagement, and giving as their reasons losses by the great shrinkage in values. Very little stock came on the market, however, and further than causing a momentary flurry the notice had no effect. Up to within fifteen minutes of the close the feeling was feverish, and very little business was done, but during the period mentioned there was a brisk covering which carried prices up ¾ to 1¼ per cent. from the lowest point. The closing prices as compared with those of Saturday showed declines in most cases ranging from ¼ to 2¾ per cent. Michigan Central and Canada Southern were about the only noticeable exceptions in the active list—the former closed 3 per cent. higher, and the latter ¾ per cent.

More of Ford Ward's Testimony.

NEW YORK, May 20.—In the suit of Morris vs. Grant & Ward, Ferdinand Ward continued his testimony. He was asked, "Who stood behind Mr. Fish?" Answer.—"I don't exactly see the point."

"What parties did he name as supplying capital or dividing profits?" A.—"Mr. Bingham, the Marine bank and Mr. Tappan."

"Others?" A.—"I don't think so."

"Have you any recollection how much Mr. Bingham received?" A.—"I don't recollect."

"Nor how much Tappan or the Marine bank?" A.—"No. Some of the profits were retained by the firm."

"There were many cases, were there not, in which persons thought there was a contract and where one person knew there was not?" A.—"Yes, sir."

"Now, these profits were no profits at all; they were simply paper?" A.—"In some cases we made money out of it."

"But there were no contracts?" A.—"No, sir."

"So Mr. Fish supplied you with money, and the bank furnished money by means of the notes that were furnished under these circumstances, and others were discounted?" A.—"It was not all paid to me."

"Did you receive money from any one else?" A.—"From Mr. Work."

"Did you pay a percentage to any one as your agent for their adherence to this scheme." A.—"Not that I remember. I only paid the profits."

"Did Jesse Grant, Jr., tell you he had any associates?" A.—"Not that I recollect."

"Did Fred Grant tell you he had anyone associated with him?" A.—"Yes; a Mr. Schoonmaker."

"You sometimes received money from Col. Fred Grant on contracts. Did he mention anyone as his principal or partner?" A.—"Yes; Mr. Schoonmaker and Commodore Garrison."

Vanderbilt Wouldn't Talk.

LONDON, May 20.—On the arrival of the White Star steamer Baltic at Queenstown, the vessel was boarded by a correspondent of the United Press, and the news of the great financial panic in New York conveyed to Mr. William H. Vanderbilt. He took the matter very quietly, and although urged for an interview on the subject, firmly declined to express an opinion at present.

Hopeful Showing.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The assignee of the Tuna Valley bank of Bradford, Pa., which failed, has issued a general statement showing liabilities of $289,000. The assets are valued at $709,000, consisting of oil properties and real estate. It is expected the creditors will be paid in full.

A SPECULATING PRESIDENT.

He Causes the Ruin of a Savings Bank—Another Suspension.

ERIE, Pa., May 20.—This city is in a state of great excitement over the failure of the Erie County Savings bank, with liabilities of $360,000, nearly all owing to mechanics and poor people. The institution was incorporated in 1871, with a capital of $150,000, and had heretofore done a safe business. A year ago the president, Adam Brabender, began speculating, it is said, and recently on a break in oil lost $40,000. When the treasurer opened the safe he found that the time lock had been tampered with, and all the funds of the bank were gone. In the place were notes of Brabender's to the amount of only half the shortage. Brabender also receipted at the express office for a $10,000 package and fled. The last seen of him was in church Sunday evening. He has heretofore borne a good reputation, was called an honest German, and reputed to be worth $100,000. The stockholders of the bank claim that depositors will lose nothing, but there is great excitement, and runs were begun on three other savings banks. No difficulty was experienced, however, in meeting all demands. The missing president is 50 years old.

Business Troubles at Petersburg, Va.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 20.—The suspension of the Planters' & Merchanics' bank is stated by Cashier Thomas Whyte to be due to several causes, prominent among which are the withdrawal of $45,000 of state funds last week; the paying of certificates of deposit for which notice might have been, but was not exacted, and the large amount of money loaned to peanut dealers, whose notes had to be renewed, as their stock is locked up by the present condition of the peanut market. Whyte says the bank will resume business in a few days. There was also a light run on the Petersburg Savings bank, which, however, soon subsided. This bank, as well as the Bank of Petersburg and Hinton & Dunn, are in first-class condition.

Stratton & Co., liquor dealers, have made an assignment, with liabilities of about $33,000; assets are estimated at $25,000. Their failure was caused by the suspension of the Planters' & Mechanics' bank. No trouble is anticipated in commercial circles.

SENATORS DISCUSS THE MATTER.

Sherman and Morgan Give Their Views.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 20.—During the debate in the senate on Morgan's resolution for an inquiry into the causes of the New York business troubles, Sherman said the senate ought to be extremely careful in dealing with questions affecting private fortunes. In every case of trouble that had occurred among the banks of New York the failure was brought about by the speculative operations of their officers. Certification of checks had nothing to do with it; in some cases, perhaps, the want of certification brought about trouble. If there had been over-certification there were government officers to prosecute the offenders, but there was no necessity for a congressional inquiry. There was no panic. The commercial credit of the country was to-day on a safer foundation than it was before these transactions occurred.

Senator Morgan said that the bank failures in New York were due to evasions by the banks of the law passed two years ago against the over-certification of checks. This law, by the way, was prepared by Senator Beck, who is a member of the finance committee, and will do all he can to have the investigation ordered. After the passage of this law the banks which do most of the business for stockbrokers invented the substitute device of "accepting" checks beyond the amount of a customer's deposits. The comptroller of the currency a year and a half ago referred the question of the legality of this process to Attorney General Brewster, who decided that this was a violation of the law. Senator Morgan said that the acts of the embarrassed national banks in lending their credit to speculators without adequate security was a mere evasion of the Beck act, and the banks got into trouble by breaking the law. Senator Morgan also made the point against the New York banks that when congress enacted a law two years ago that no national bank should belong to a clearing house that refused to accept silver, the banks decided the law, and openly announced their intention of evading it, and they did evade it. But the other day, when some of them were afraid of a run, they took refuge behind the derided silver dollar, depositing $1,000,000 of gold certificates and taking out $1,000,000 of silver, thereby giving notice that any depositor who called for his money would have to take it away in a wheelbarrow.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

That Inoculation Is a Preventive of the Fatal Hydrophobia.

PARIS, May 20.—M. Louis Pasteur, academician and eminent chemist, read a paper before the academy in which he stated that researches which he has for some time been prosecuting conclusively prove that the fatality attending hydrophobia may be avoided by inoculation. He says his discoveries are so important that government commissions should be appointed thoroughly to investigate the subject.

Severe Fire at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—At 2:30 p. m. an alarm called the department to a fire in the large building occupied by the Cincinnati Lead Pipe & Sheet company, at 21 and 23 East Ninth street. The fire started in the boiler-room and spread with such rapidity that when the engines arrived it was thought advisable to turn in a general alarm. In less than ten minutes from the discovery of the flames they had spread through the entire first, second and third floors. There was a quantity of oil on the third floor, and this exploded with considerable force, scattering the blazing liquid in every direction. How the fire started is not known, but it is supposed that coals from the furnace set fire to some wood-work for kindling. Mrs. Leech, the wife of one of the workmen, who lives in the building, was badly burned and it is thought her injuries are fatal. She is 75 years of age. William E. Cook, the shipping clerk, was in the cellar when the fire broke out, and before he could escape was severely burned. Capt. Hickerson, of fire engine company No. 7, and Captain Last, of company No. 4, received slight cuts. Mr. John D. Abraham is the head of the company and he says they had about $50,000 of stock on hand. This was a total loss. It was fully insured.

Purchase of Four Per Cents.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 20.—There is authority for the statement that there has been no conference held at the treasury department to consider the expediency of purchasing 4 per cent. bonds. Had these bonds declined last week much below 118 treasury officials say Secretary Folger would have been justified in investing the balance due the sinking fund and the surplus revenues on hand in them, for in so doing there would have been a large saving over an investment in 3 per cents at par. Authority for such action, they say, may be found in the sinking fund act, and in supplemental acts, which authorize the secretary from to time, to apply the surplus money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, or so much as he may consider proper, to the purchase or redemption of United States bonds, "provided, that the bonds so purchased or redeemed shall constitute no part of the sinking fund, but shall be cancelled."

The Methodist Episcopal Conference.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—It was decided by the Methodist conference that the consecration of bishops-elect take place Thursday. A report was adopted recommending that the South India conference be divided into two annual conferences during the quadrennium if the exigencies demand it. Dr. J. M. Read, of Michigan, and the Rev. C. C. McCabe, of New York, were elected co-ordinate correspondents of the missionary society. The committee on missions recommended to the favorable consideration of the general mission committee of the next session "the subject of establishing evangelizing agencies in such places among the Roman Catholic population, to be administered as foreign missions." The report was adopted, after the defeat of a motion to strike out the reference to Roman Catholics.

MORE TROUBLE AT DANVILLE, VA.

The Mayor Asks the Governor for Troops—Contradictory.

RICHMOND, Va., May 20.—Monday morning the following telegram was received here:

DANVILLE, May 19.—TO GOVERNOR WILLIAM E. CAMERON: Four white men attacked George Adams, (colored) to-day, and beat him so that he will probably die. This, I believe, is the beginning of trouble here which may cause much bloodshed, unless troops—at least a regiment—be sent here at once to preserve the peace. Please answer by telegraph.
[Signed] JOHN H. JOHNSTON, Mayor.

Governor Cameron is on his way home from a business visit to New York, and will not arrive here until half past 9 at night. A private dispatch received here says that Mayor Johnston is unnecessarily excited; that all is quiet, and that the difficulty grew out of an attempt to force Johnston's ticket on the people. Johnston is the Republican candidate for mayor at the election to be held there on Thursday. George Adams is a colored witness who testified about the Danville riot before the Sherman investigating committee.

THE LONG ISLAND ITEM.

A Housekeeper Scared Into Silence and Robbery Committed.

FREEPORT, L. I., May 20.—During the absence from home of Dr. J. H. Denton and his family, two negroes called and said they would wait for the doctor's return. After sitting in the office for some time they attacked the housekeeper, the only person in the house, and frightened her into silence by drawing knives. They then robbed the house of a gold watch and $310 in money. The woman is prostrated from fright and rough handling and 100 men are searching for the robbers.

Mattie Vickers.

This charming actress will appear in Myers opera house on Thursday evening of this week, in Jacquine; or, Paste and Diamonds. She is supported by an excellent company, appearing in all of the eastern cities to large and delighted audiences. The Cleveland Herald, of a recent date says:

"The Academy of Music contained a large sized audience last night, who went there to witness the first performance in this city of Gayler's comedy drama, Jacquine; or, Pasto and Diamonds. The play, in looking at it from a dramatic standpoint of view, is superior, in many epochs, to the usual run of pieces, written to order to suit certain peculiarities of performers. It is interesting throughout, and though it can not be termed strictly original in some of its scenes, as suggested from other dramas crop out here and there, it can with safety be pronounced one of the best specialty plays we have witnessed this season. The old story of the long-lost child discovered by her mother, the drunken father, etc., is repeated with new details, but despite all that, the plot is a most entertaining one, and keeps the audience interested from the rise of the curtain in the first act to the close of the performance. Miss Mattie Vickers, as the heroine, is a splendid little actress, has a beautifully expressive face, sings and dances to everybody's liking and possesses the material of becoming one of the best soubrettes on the American stage. She is a most excellent dialect artist, imitates Aimee's famous "Pretty as a Picture" to perfection, and succeeds in gaining round after round of applause. Mr. Charles Rogers, as as Dick Vinton, the bill poster, proved to the audience that during his absense from Cleveland he utilized his time to the best advantage, acts in an easy, graceful and natural manner, and can scarcely be excelled in his imitations of prominent actors. Last night in his imitations of Jefferson, Mayo, McCullough and others, he more than surprised the audience and found it most difficult to leave the stage. The company on the whole, is above the average of combinations of that description.

SPORTS OF THE TIME.

Mike Cleary Disappoints the Audience with One Terrific Blow,

Which Knocks the "Prussian" Out Toototally—Jem Goode and Capt. Dalton at Chicago—Racing and Base Ball.

KNOCKED OUT IN ONE ROUND.

Mike Cleary Licks the "Prussian" in One Blow and One Minute.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—The glove contest between Mike Cleary of New York, and William Sheriff, alias the "Prussian," took place at Industrial Art hall, in the presence of 2,000 spectators. The entertainment opened with several contests between lesser lights, including two bouts between colored men. At 10:15 the contest of the evening was called, and the combatants stepped into the ring. Both men appeared to be in splendid condition. Cleary weighed 156 pounds, and the Prussian 200 pounds. After a few preliminary passes, occupying one minute and five seconds, Cleary landed a blow on the Prussians lower jaw near the chin, knocking him insensible. He made several ineffectual attempts to gain his feet, but was completely dazed, and when time was called, was in an almost insensible condition. The fight was then decided in Cleary's favor and Sheriff was carried from the stage and it required considerable time to revive him. The crowd was greatly disappointed at the sudden termination of the fight, but no disaster occurred. Fifty policemen under command of a captain were present and were stationed in various parts of the house to maintain order.

Dalton vs. Jem Goode.

CHICAGO, May 20.—A large crowd was attracted to Battery D armory to witness the sparring match between Capt. J. H. Dalton, of Chicago, and Jem Goode, of England. The preliminary events passed off successfully, and the two stars made their appearance amid loud applause. The gloves used were the hardest "soft" gloves ever used in Battery D hall. Dalton was in superb condition, while Goode was too "beefy" by ten or fifteen pounds. The blows exchanged in the first round were telling ones. Dalton gave a splendid exhibition of fancy and effective fighting, and when time was called both men showed the effects of the milling.

Dalton's crusade in the second round will be memorable in the annals of Chicago sparring. Again and again he fought the Englishman to the ropes, giving two blows where he received one. Thrice was Goode forced off the platform beneath a storm of blows. The last time he fell in a lump, but rallied instantly. The excitement was intense. Goode was compelled to travel around the staging before he could remount the platform. In doing this he consumed eleven seconds and the referee awarded the fight to Dalton.

The Legislative Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 20.—Holman, from the committee on appropriations, has reported to the house the legislative appropriation bill. The bill appropriates $20,736,876. Last year's bill was $20,648,686. The estimates this year were $21,675,502. The bill provides for a second assistant secretary of the interior at $3,500 per annum; ten additional principal examiners in the pension office, $2,000 each; 150 special examiners in the pension office, $1,600 each; thirty-seven additional clerks in the sixth auditor's and ten additional clerks in the second auditor's office. It also reduces the clerical and copyist force of the pension office 270; reduces the number of internal revenue districts from eighty-three to sixty-three, and contains a clause which prohibits the payment of salaries to private secretaries of senators.

Put Where He'll Do Most Good.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 20.—George J. Williams is well educated and thoroughly versed in the pension and postal laws. There are eight other indictments against him. When all the cases have been tried he will probably serve the rest of his life in prison.

WOOL MEN IN COUNCIL.

Meeting of Wool-Growers in Convention at Chicago.

Resolutions Demanding the Restoration of the Wool Tariff of 1867 Adopted—An Address To Be Issued.

CHICAGO, May 20.—A convention of wool-growers from all parts of the country met at the Grand Pacific. The attendance was approximately 200, the largest delegations being from Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Missouri, New York, Wisconsin, and Iowa. Representatives were present from twenty-three states. The Hon. Columbus Delano, of Ohio, called the convention to order, and said that the object of the convention was to take action toward restoring the duty of 1867 on wool. He predicted that within five years the wool-growers would be a power which congress could not afford to ignore. The only business transacted in the morning session was the appointment of committees on resolutions, permanent organizations, etc.

At the opening of the afternoon session the Hon. Columbus Delano, of Ohio, was made permanent chairman, and R. T. McCullery, of Missouri, permanent secretary. In his speech of acceptance Mr. Delano urged the wool-growers throughout the country to organize in order to protect themselves. They should insist on the restoration of the tariff of 1867, and the politicians, when they understood that 1,000,000 votes were at stake, would accede to such a demand. The only substantial encouragement ever given to wool-growers in this country was under the tariff running from 1867 to 1883. In 1860 the wool clip was 60,000,000 pounds. In 1880 it was 300,000,000 pounds. During the same period the number of sheep increased from 20,000,000 to 50,000,000. This tariff was abolished in 1883, and already the depressing effect on the wool-growing industry was apparent.

The report of the committee on resolutions, which was in substance as follows, was adopted:

The preamble gives statistics showing the importance of the wool industry, declaring that there are 1,020,000 flock-masters in the country, and that the product is of the value of over $150,000,000, and the amount invested in real estate $500,000,000.

The first and second resolutions are as follows:

That we will organize as wool-growers and sheep-breeders, and co-operate by means of our national association, to be aided by state and county societies, and in this way, and by all other legitimate methods, we will do all in our power to restore the tariff of 1867, or its equivalent, on wools and woolens, and cause to be repealed the unjust, unwise, and unequal legislation of 1883 reducing duties on imported wools and woolens.

That in doing this we will, without reference to former political affiliations, recognize our friends whenever and wherever we find them; and at the polls we will sustain only such men and party organizations as are in favor of protecting and encouraging and sustaining sheep husbandry in the United States by restoring the wool tariff of 1867 or its equivalent. And that we will not support any party or political candidate until they have clearly defined their position as in favor of the restoration of said tariff.

The other resolutions favor a system of economic legislation calculated to foster, develop and sustain American industries, repudiate the doctrine of free trade and declare that the undervaluation of imported wools is entailing great loss to the country both in revenue and loss to the American wool producer, and should be immediately stopped.

The resolutions were signed by Albert Chipman, Vermont; John Ray, New York; R. A. Pugh, West Virginia; A. D. Whitmore, Wisconsin; Edward Brunson, Kansas; Mortimore Levering, Indiana; S. P. Smith, Illinois; H. McAllister, Jr., Colorado; L. L. Seiber, Missouri; R. R. Claridge, Texas; F. Jansen, Nebraska; W. H. Cowden, Ohio; William Ball, Michigan, and W. L. Archer, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Delano and others were thanked for so ably advocating the interests of wool-growers before the congressional committee on ways and means. Messrs. McAllister, of Colorado; Miller, of Pennsylvania; Ball, of Michigan; Lawrence, of Ohio, and Wellington, of Kansas, were appointed a committee to prepare an address to the wool-growers of the United States. An invitation was accepted to attend a lunch at 201 Michigan street as guests of the wool-buyers of Chicago.

Presbyterian Assembly at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 20.—The committee on the book of discipline reported to the general assembly that the requisite number of Presbyterians had adopted it, and it was declared the law of the church. The matter has been under discussion for six years. A minute was adopted concerning the death of Cyrus McCormick, of Chicago, whose gifts to this church reach over $250,000. The committee on a permanent place of meeting for the general assembly reported. The places named are Philadelphia, Washington and Saratoga. It will be taken up on Saturday morning. An immense meeting in behalf of missions to freedmen was held in the evening. Rev. Dr. Mitchmore, of Philadelphia, presided. A number of addresses were delivered by colored ministers, and the occasion was one of extraordinary interest.

Washington City Notes.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 20.—Hurd tried to get the house to abolish the discriminating duty on works of arts which makes a distinction between works by Americans and those by foreigners. The bill also reduced the duty 10 to 30 per cent. On a motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill, the vote stood: Yeas, 52; nays, 179.

The Wallace-McKinley contested election case, from Ohio, has been postponed for a week.

The following nominations have been sent to the senate: Postmasters—Shelby Sexton, North Manchester, Ind.; Thomas H. Daily, New Lisbon, Ohio; S. Crum, Oswego, Kan.

Our Present Blessings.

Our blessings are not appreciated until we are deprived of them. Most notable among them is health, the lack of which magnifies our other burdens. A hacking cough, a severe cold or any throat or lung disease is very troublesome; but all these may be quickly and permanently removed by Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure. Trial bottles free, of Stearns & Baker.

Value of the Anti-Socialist Law.

BERLIN, May 20.—A man has been arrested at Rosbach who confesses that he was concerned in an attempt to blow up the colossal statue of Germany at Neiderwald. He fully confirms the statements made by the progressist deputy, Herr Richter, in arguing against the extension of the anti-socialist law, that the enforcement of the law in the past had not prevented the Socialists from placing dynamite under the statue, nor from engaging in other conspiracies.

Killed by Lightning.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 20.—During a thunder-storm here lightning struck a shanty on Halifax street. The fluid went down the chimney and struck Alice Jones, colored, aged 18, who was sitting at the fire-place, killing her instantly and seriously stunning her mother.

COULDN'T PASS EACH OTHER.

Railway Crash by Which Several People Were Hurt, Some Seriously.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, May 19.—The Alliance accommodation coming west on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad, collided with a heavy east-bound freight train about three miles west of New Galilee. The passenger train was running at about fifteen miles an hour and the freight about thirty. The accommodation was running on schedule time, and the freight on orders, and making especially fast time to reach Galilee before the accommodation would leave, as they were, occupying the track on the accommodations time. Both engineers and firemen jumped from their engines when the trains came within sight of each other, as they saw that they were powerless to avert the collision. The trains came together with terrible force, demolishing the engines, telescoping the express and baggage cars, and literally reducing eight or ten loaded freight-cars to kindling wood and piling up a wreck which it took twenty-four hours to clear up. All the passengers were more or less shaken up, but none seriously hurt. The following is a list of those most dangerously injured: Jacob Castner, passenger conductor, cut about the head and badly bruised, may recover; Express Messenger McFarland, cut about the head and face; fireman of freight engine, Beltz, leg broken; Freight Conductor Morrow was badly bruised and had his ankle sprained; Frank Auge, passenger brakeman, hand cut, thrown off and hip hurt; Freight Engineer Pontefract, head cut. Conductor Castner was standing in a car, and was thrown against the door with such force that it was broken to splinters, and he was landed between the cars. East-bound trains were compelled to run into Pittsburg over the Cleveland & Pittsburg. A temporary track has been built around the wreck.

Professional Jealously Causes Murder

CRISFIELD, Md., May 20.—At Tangier Island, Va., on Saturday, Dr. Pitts called Dr. Walter, a rival physician, into his office and deliberately shot him dead. Professional jealously was the cause of the murder. Walter had been practicing here for some time, and Pitts tried to build up a business but failed. The people made an attempt to lynch Pitts, but were prevented by a few of the leading citizens. The murderer was placed in jail.

The McKeague Murder Trial.

CHICAGO, May 20.—In the McKeague murder trial, the state rested its case with the introduction of a memorandum found in the Willson residence showing that the accused owed James L. Willson $700 on a contract and $200 on a chattel mortgage. In opening the case for the defense, Mr. Van Arman expressed the intention of proving that McKeague had a $50 bill on the night of the murder and showing how the buttons were lost from the vest of the prisoner.

Fatal Poisoning by Mistake.

PITTSBURG, May 20.—A Harrodsburg, Ky., special says: Eighteen boys playing base ball at Stewart were poisoned by eating hemlock roots in a mistake. Two died almost instantly, two more will probably die and eight others are badly poisoned.

VISIONS OF WEALTH.

Projects of Great Moment Which Are Mapped Out Unceasingly.

Some of the Seediest Men the Most Brilliant Schemers—Outlines of the Proposed Enterprises.

[Denver News.]

About every other man who is to be met west of the Missouri river is a schemer. The projects that are born here annually, mapped out in endless conversation or in stacks of legal cap and then dropped incontinently, would, if properly described, fill volumes. Merchants, lawyers, physicians, manufacturers, preachers, invalids, and all the dependents occupy their spare moments in studying up enterprises of great weight and moment. There is something in the atmosphere which seems to encourage this peculiar phase of mental activity. A young man in the east to whom inducements to settle in the far west may be offered, is assured that, while the salary may not be large, he must not overlook the opportunities which a new country affords to smart, active fellows. Opportunity has paid millions of dollars in salaries in this country during the last twenty years. It is dealt in by all who may be established here, and is parcelled out to new comers as if it were an asset of those already here. It is intangible for the most part, and consists chiefly of magnificent visions. The privilege of dealing in opportunity is generously accorded to all, from the railroad manager to the kitchen drudge.

Some of the seediest men in the west are the most brilliant schemers. There is an old fellow who fluctuates between Virginia City, Leadville, and Denver who has fathered more projects involving tremendous engineering feats than all the great engineers in the world. Every time he turns up here he has a new idea, and is very confident that he has struck it this time. His latest was thus described by himself:

"You are aware that the great gold deposits of California have been found in the beds of rivers. Millions have been taken from them. Now, I have a scheme that if properly worked, will make the finds on those creeks look like tallow dips by the side of an electric light. All through the Rockies and Sierras there are buried rivers, rivers that have been covered up by volcanic upheavals in the ages that have gone. Centuries ago there were rivers now unknown, as rich in mineral as any of those from whose beds so many fortunes have been taken. Now, if gold has been found in these comparatively new rivers, as most of those with which we are acquainted undoubtedly are, what do you think must be the richness of the deposits in these old river bed, into which the priceless treasures of a virgin earth were washed?

"I have located three or four of these ancient rivers, and have mapped out a plan of operations. All that will be necessary is to sink a shaft four or five hundred feet through the earth and rock, and when the gravel is struck run drifts up and down the bed of the old-time river. There is absolutely no limit to the possibilities, I may say probabilities, of this scheme, except the length of the river bed. It can be followed from its source to its mouth, and untold millions taken out. It is a big thing, and if I can get some moneyed men interested in the scheme I will make a hundred fortunes."

"I have got a scheme," said a thin, long-whiskered individual in a Las Animas tavern the other day, "which only needs money to make it a stupendous and world-famous success. Now, here's this Arkansas river. It's no good after it leaves the mountain country, and with a little change in its course it might be made useful to the west. I have found a place where, by the construction of a wall of rough masonry, seven or eight feet high, for a distance of two or three miles, that river could be turned from its channel here in Colorado, and sent booming to the south through Arizona or New Mexico, as you pleased, and into the Rio Grande. With a steady supply of good water then assured it would be an easy matter to sell privileges along the route, to construct great reservoirs for irrigating purposes, and to build waterworks for towns and mining camps. This thing is in the interest of civilization.

"The river now runs through a flat country, the inhabitants of which cannot and do not care to utilize its waters. Turned off, as I propose, it would hasten the settlement of all the country to the south of us, and develop some of the richest mining properties in the world. Think of the amount of stock that could be sold in such a scheme, of the number of companies that could be organized, and of the dividends that they would pay. I have had a talk with one congressman and several capitalists of this project, and the thing is working. The first thing you know it will be under full headway."

On a Denver & Rio Grande train the other day, a sharp-eyed man who had tried everything, from mining and stock-raising to bottling beer in this city, observed: "One of these days there will be a railroad through every canon in this whole western country. It only needs a million or two to make a hundred millions on a little scheme I have in view. There are lots of canons where you can't put more than one railroad track through to save your life. I have been thinking of organizing a company to buy up the right of way in such places, and put down a section of track. Let it lie. One of these days there'll be a strike on one of these routes, and they will have to have a railroad built. It can't go up the mountain or through it. Our right of way and bit of track will come mighty handy, also mighty high; and enough can be made on one such deal to pay the expense of the whole undertaking. Before very long there will be a demand for the others, and so it will go. I'm negotiating for capital now."

The land grant is a thing which excites the cupidity of the schemers. Every railroad in this country knows how necessary it is to keep an eye on its lands. Somebody is scheming for them all the time. Dozens of jobs have been organized to capture big slices of the public domain on which corporations of one kind and another have fastened their grip. Every legal point must be watched with the utmost care, and if any loophole is left open, some fellow who may have been waiting for years for just that opportunity is sure to crawl in at it.

A Statue Restorer.

[Cor. New York Sun.]

There has recently died in Rome an old man whose talent and dexterity for restoring mutilated statues was scarcely short of magic. One of the finest marbles in the museum of the capitol was re-created by him out of 143 fragments found embedded in the masonry of the wall of a house recently demolished in the new city improvements. This old man had a mania for personal obscurity—even his very name is unknown—and he passed his existence hunting around among the ruins for broken pieces of sculpture, which he seemed to fit instinctively, bit by bit, one to the other, until, from a shapeless mass of broken marble, he frequently succeeded in producing statues of wonderful beauty.

Letter from Senator H. C. Nelson.

Senate Chamber, Albany, N. Y., April 4, 1883.—On the 27th of February, 1883, I was taken with a violent pain in the region of the kidneys. I suffered such agony that I could hardly stand up. As soon as possible I applied two ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, one over each kidney, and laid down. In an hour, to my surprise and delight, the pain had vanished and I was well. I wore the plaster for a day or two as a precaution, and then removed them. I have been using ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS in my family for the last ten years, and have always found them the quickest and best external remedy for colds, strains, kinks and rheumatic affections. From my experience I believe they are the best plaster in the world.

Modern Science and Skepticism

What has Skepticism done for the world?
Nothing but to suggest doubts. It has even suggested that Rheumatism cannot be cured. Skepticism is as bad as Rheumatism.

What has Science done for the world?
A good many things; for instance, it has shown that Rheumatism can be cured.
It has shown that Neuralgia can be got rid of.
Modern science has proved that Rheumatism is a blood disease, and has provided ATHLOPHOROS as the remedy which can completely cure it.
It has proved that although the old doctors failed to overcome Neuralgia, ATHLOPHOROS can reach it, and eradicate it from the system.
It has proved that though these tormenting diseases were so slow and obstinate, they can be overcome in a little while by means of Athlophoros!

Don't be skeptical. If you have any doubts as to what ATHLOPHOROS can do, write to some of those whom it has cured. For instance, Rev. S. R. Dennen, D. D., Pastor Third Congregational Church, of New Haven, Conn., the Rev. W. P. Corbit, pastor George St. M. E. Church, of New Haven, the Rev. J. E. Searles, pastor Willett St. M. E. Church, New York city, Mr. Brummell, the well known candy manufacturer, of New York, Ex-Gov. Bigelow, of Connecticut, and many others, equally well known.

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

Chronic Diseases.

A Special Study for Years.

Dr. F. B. BREWER

Has made Chronic Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach. Liver, Kidneys, Nerves and Blood.

A special treatment for years. He is not a boastful, ignorant pretender, but an educated physician, seeking to do good, by devoting his talent and energies to the treatment of a class of maladies that have been with him a long and patient study. To be able to treat successfully chronic diseases it requires that a physician should be a sound, thorough scholar in the art of science and medicine generally. He should give his entire time to their study, be thorough in his investigations and have a long and varied experience. Dr. Brewer claims to work no wonders or to do any more than any well educated physician can do, who devotes his whole time to the study and treatment of chronic diseases exclusively, and has had his many years of experience. For years Dr. Brewer has visited the the places he now visits, and has obtained his reputation by being honest in his dealings, candid in opinions and reasonable in his charges. Those who are afflicted are invited to call, investigate and decide for themselves. It will cost nothing to do so. Address all letters to F. B. BREWER, M. D., Lock Box 238, Evanston, Ill.

Dr. F. B. Brewer will be at Janesville, Myers house, Saturday, the 7th of June.

—The sale of lands for unpaid taxes for the year 1883 was commenced by the county treasurer at nine o'clock this morning. But few bidders were present and the sale was concluded in about two hours. The net proceeds of the concert will be placed in the Congregational organ fund. On motion of Ald. Daly a license was granted to Mathias Hoseley, the vote being 6 to 4, Ald. Burnham, Kenyon, McLean, Palmer voting no.

The vote at the last meeting refusing a license to O. C. Pell, was reconsidered on motion of Ald. Shearer, and on motion of Ald. Daly a license was granted. Those voting no were Ald. Burnham, Kenyon, Palmer and Shearer.

One reason why the treatment of rheumatism is so frequently wanting in success is, that the local remedies applied do not reach the seat of disease, which is the blood. Athlophoros deals at once with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames the system and by expelling it invigorates the action of the muscles, limbers the joints and brings renewed health to the wearied frame. Miss Mary A. Danforth was cured of rheumatism of long standing by one day's use of this medicine.

A "God-Send."

The children of Israel were once fed by manna, sent from Heaven. This was an undoubted case of "God-send." The amelioration of human ills and ailments has been often undertaken, and as often failed. Ely's Cream Balm, however, "has weighed in the balance and not found wanting. It is a soverign, speedy certain, and pleasant cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head. Thousands of persons have attested this fact. "Ely's Cream Balm is a God-send," wrote Mrs. M. A. Jackson, of Portsmouth, N. H., on May 22, 1882. "I had Catarrh for three years; had tried nearly all the remedies, but to no purpose. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed quite freely, and I thought the sores in it would never heal. Your balm has cured me." This preparation is not a liquid or snuff, and is easily applied. Can you, reader, afford to experiment with injurious snuffs and injections when a certain and pleasant cure is at hand.

His corrugated, galvanized iron bottom, has twice the chilling capacity. The circulation of cold air is perfect. It is charcoal filled; charcoal being a deoderizer and a non conductor of heat and cold. Jewett's Refrigerator is always sweet; no unpleasant odor. It excludes hot air in summer and cold air in winter. It is no experiment, the principle having been thoroughly tested by years of experience. It is the leading refrigerator in all the markets east and west you can get one at
